Structure

- Resource paper (Pendyala)
- Japanese perspective from the Synthesis paper (Sasaki & Nishii)
- Three contributions from Habib & Miller, Shiftan & Ben-Akiva, Lee-Gosselin et al.
- and from about 20 participants

Main themes of discussion

Process models versus optimisation (Flexibility and impulsiveness)

Activity agendas and scheduling (as route choice through capacitated systems for travel and activity performance)

Choices needed for applicable models (i.e. for sequential set of nested choice models)

Do we need the overnight run ?
